

Next-Gen Premix Facility

Dedicated to Pet Applications

Highlights

- Strategically located in the Kansas City Animal Health Corridor for convenient access to many industry-leading pet food manufacturers, streamlining your supply chain and reducing logistics costs
- State-of-the-art pet food dedicated premix facility, thoughtfully designed for precision micro-batching capability that allows unprecedented choices for custom premixes
- Innovative advanced process automation equipment for greater accuracy, weight verification and traceability. Unmatched flexibility in automated ingredient addition, providing access to hundreds of ingredient options
- Powered entirely by renewable electricity and focused on reducing waste, demonstrating a strong commitment to sustainability
- Unique Amabox technology, combined with RFID encoding technology, is employed for precision dosing and complete traceability
- Your revolutionary source for the superior quality, traceability, and reliability the pet food manufacturing industry demands

- ✓ Custom vitamin, mineral and specialty premixes
- ✓ Batch capacity:
 - Main line – 2 tons (3 batches per hour)
 - Small batch line – 550 lbs
- ✓ 28 silos with a total capacity of 17,233 cu ft
- ✓ Eight portable batch collection containers 1,130 cu ft
- ✓ System-guided high bay warehouse
- ✓ Fully automated dosing and tracking processes
- ✓ 50-lb bags to bulk packaging options
- ✓ 2,460-pallet storage warehouse
- ✓ Business-to-business
- ✓ FSSC 22000 Certified

Reach out to one of our pet food experts to discover how our new, pet-focused premix facility, driven by innovation, can support you in meeting your customers' evolving needs.