NEW PET PREMIX PLANT

Under construction in Kansas

We are expanding our North American premix capabilities

- ✓ Next Generation premix plant
- ✓ Strategically located in the geographical center of the U.S.
- ✓ Close to the heartland of U.S. petfood manufacturing
- ✓ Scheduled to open in 2025

Our new premix plant will feature:

- Precise automated addition of micro ingredients to premixes, including those considered high-risk, in a fully traceable manner; much faster and more accurate than manual addition.
- Containerized transport, with a full batch assembly in one container that moves about the facility.
- Expanded capability to blend more third-party raw materials to meet the needs of more complex and evolving pet product formulations.
- Plant designed from the ground up to meet and exceed pet food industry quality and food safety requirements.
- Utilizes 100% renewable energy sources.
- This new state-of-the-art facility is designed to provide peace of mind to customers when it comes to Quality, Safety and Reliability.
